Illinois Department of Commerce
Office of Employment and Training

Patti Schnoor - Technology and Performance Manager

Challenges and Meeting Challenges

- Better Business Engagement - Develop a new approach to serving Illinois' businesses and those employed by those businesses. Design an innovative system solution that will leverage current data and system assets to empower economic developers and assist business expansion and development.
- Improved Dislocated Worker Tracking Tools - Give responder staff a tool that allows them to readily input and extract data that will equip them with the ability to conduct both proactive and reactive services to businesses laying off, and the workers being laid off.
- Data Intelligence- Quality data that is easy to access, easy to understand, and easy to retain and extract.

Workforce & Business Assistance Services Layoff Prevention and Aversion

Analyze How it Works

Any layoff of any size can trigger a Rapid Response.

If fewer than 25 jobs are involved, the response shall be coordinated by the affected local workforce area(s). If 25 or more jobs are involved, the State shall coordinate the response.

Goal - Comprehensive Services

New and Improved Process

PROACTIVE – Business Engagement

- Employer engagement and outreach and identifying business and workforce opportunities and threats throughout the state
- Meet existing and future talent needs of growing companies by offering incumbent worker training programs to help upgrade workers' skills.

REACTIVE – Layoff Aversion

- In the case of layoffs and plant closings, the Rapid Response team can quickly coordinate services and provide immediate aid to companies and their workers.
- Quickly and clearly assess the needs of those in jeopardy and locate alternative work options and/or training and a path to successful re-employment.

Rapid Response can provide customized services on-site at affected companies, accommodate many work schedules, and assist company leaders and workers through the difficult transitions associated with job loss.

Technology for Data Driven Decisions

Approach to business governance that values decisions that can be backed up with verifiable data.

Old Way of doing business:

- Need a specialist with a strong background in technology to mine data for information because it is necessary for that person to understand how databases and data warehouses work.
- Requires staff to reach out to the information technology department (IT) and request a report. Someone from the IT department would then create the report and schedule it to run on a periodic basis. The process is complex, and ad hoc reports, also known as one-off reports, are informative but not instant.

New way of doing business:

- Business intelligence tools often require very little, if any, support from the IT department. Business managers can customize dashboards to display the data they want to see and run custom reports on the fly.
- The changes in how data can be mined and visualized allows business executives who have no technology backgrounds to be able to work with analytics tools and make data-driven decisions.

One version of the truth.

The success of the data-driven approach is reliant upon the quality of the data gathered and the effectiveness of its analysis and interpretation.

ILLINOIS Employment Business System

IEBS

Illinois Employment Business system (IEBS) is an economic landscape tool utilized by state and local workforce and education specialists, and economic development specialists to view macro and micro-economic conditions in the state in order to make data driven decisions regarding self-sustaining jobs and long term business stability. Data from the system is utilized in state economic development and strategic planning.

Private Access

- Data access is based upon permissions and overseen by a data security officer.
- Log into Home screen and access to the amount of data visibility is based upon permission level.
  - Owner
  - Contributor
  - View Only
- The level of permissions would be based on user need, completion of a security clearance questionnaire, and usage acknowledgement forms for individual users with signatures.
